Prayer and Song in Theaters. Special to EVENING HERALD.

Philadelphia, Nov. 13.—The Evangelical Alliance of Philadelphia begins a novel crusade to-morrow. All of the theaters in the city have been leased for Sundays during the winter, and in each in turn monster revival services will take place with a chorus of many hundred voices. The Rev. Dr. Henry M. Wharton, an evangelist, whose preaching has attracted much attention throughout the country, will address the first meeting at the Walnut street theatre to-morrow. The services that follow will be conducted by prominent preachers of an evangelist.

Last Night's Show.

The production of Lincoln J. Carter's novel drama, "Under the Dome," at Ferguson's theatre last night was cordially received by a large audience and it was the most striking scene event of the season. The play is very interesting and the cast which interpreted was a well balanced one of excellent artists. The audience became enthusiastic over several of the scenes, especially the final one of the fourth act, depicting the wrecking of the U. S. S. "Trenton" on the reefs at Samoa. The raising of the curtain on this scene was demanded four times.

Charged With Burglary.

Edward Harris, of Frackville, was committed to jail last evening charged with burglary. Several months ago a store at Frackville was broken into and robbed. Several members of the Harris family were suspected and a search of their house revealed a large amount of the stolen goods.

Unanimous Verdict.

From our many articles the past few weeks received from various sources, it will be seen that the comedy farce, "A Wise Woman," is a strictly first class attraction with more originality and novel features than any company that has yet visited us. It remains to be seen how they will be appreciated.

COURT AT POTTSVILLE

Week Just Closed a Record Breaker in Cases Disposed Of.

THERE WERE OVER TWO HUNDRED

The Wm. Penn Murder Case Fixed For Trial on Next Monday—Grand Jury Makes Its Report—Acted on Nearly Three Hundred Bills.

Pottsville, Nov. 13.—With three courts and the grand jury in full blast all week, the clerks and reporters were kept busy, in order to keep up with the flood of cases. Deputy clerk of the courts, Duffy, and D. J. Walden, Shuener must have their records up-to-date and permit three reporters, the Tappan's Association agent and the lawyers to have access to the books, in addition to calling and keeping track of jurors and jurors, taking down verdicts for Monday morning, and those interested would do well to read the advertisement in another column. The record follows:

CRIMINAL COURT.

The first week of criminal court closed at noon with 203 cases disposed of. This is said to be the record, considering that one murder trial was on the list. Judges Bechtel, Marr and Cheseloh, in criminal cases, and so did the jurors. Judge Henning took occasion to thank them at adjournment. He also issued a capias for Con. Leonard, who failed to appear for sentence this morning, and ordered him to be brought to prison. All cases disposed of, including the Wm. Penn murder trial, closed for Monday morning, and those interested would do well to read the advertisement in another column. The record follows:

Mike Kemkavage, Martin Lozowke, Anthony Granducio, John Zanas and George Rogers, aggravated assault and battery, etc., on oath of Constable Joseph Pitkur, Kemkavage, Lozowke and Rogers withdrew their pleas of not guilty and pleaded guilty. The two first named got $10 fine, costs and 3 months at solitary confinement. Granducio was found not guilty and Zanas was found guilty of aggravated assault and battery to kill, Rogers and Zanas were not sentenced. The case charging them all with malicious mischief was not pressed and dismissed, the county to pay the record costs only.

Thomas Vaughan, assault and battery, oath of Henrietta Ross; submitted to trial without jury; guilty, $5 fine and costs.

John Kanarowski, assault and battery, oath of William Wascynski; not guilty, prosecutor to pay the costs.

George and Richard Jones, assault and battery and conspiracy, oath of Abe Goldman; tried by Judge Henning; not guilty, county to pay court and officers' costs and witness fees dismissed.

Alex Kukiwicz, assault and battery, oath of Anthony Sinkiewicz; not guilty, each pay half the costs. Most of the parties interested said they were drunk at the time and Judge Henning told the jury to squeeze the beer out of the case.

Mrs. Lizzie and Frank Roberts, assault and battery, oath of Constable Joseph Pitkur, Sarah A. Johnson; not guilty, each equally divided between Mrs. Roberts and Sarah A. Johnson.

Michael Baranowsky, assault and battery, oath of Frank Antinovich; not guilty, but pay two-thirds of the costs and one-third on prosecutor.

Joseph Makowicz and Peter Sawak, charged with larceny and receiving stolen goods, on oath of Tal Phillips, of Shenandoah; the defendants were found guilty of receiving stolen goods only. Not sentenced. This case was returned to the September term.

Lewis K. Bissett, charged with interfering with and resisting Officer Martin Phalen; not guilty, county for court costs.

George Webber, assault and battery; not guilty and pay four-fifths of the costs.

Elizabeth Horn, charged with surety, oath of Sarah Satter; the court heard the parties and directed the defendant to pay the costs.

John Cheseloh, malicious mischief, oath of Andrew Zynaski, jury out.

John H. Roberts, assault and battery and surety, oath of Harriet A. Johnson, tried without a jury; not guilty, each pay half the costs.

W. H. Osman, maliciously tearing down fence, oath of William Hildebrandt; not guilty, but pay costs.

J. M. Bittenhouse, adultery, oath of Philip Anderson; not guilty, county for costs.

GRAND JURY REPORT.

True bills: Peter Mulligan, common nuisance, oath of Z. P. Madeira; David Williams, larceny, oath of Mary Phillips; John Walsh and Thomas Molale, breaking, etc., oath of Lizzie Snyder; Mrs. Charles Daburka, malicious mischief, oath of Maggie Rukitski.

Not true bills: Anthony Yekabonicki, larceny as bailor, oath of George Wilczynski; John A. Stofawsky, larceny, oath of J. T. Hoffington.

Not true bills and prosecutor to pay the costs: William Williams, Mrs. Samuel Bevan, James Dawson, Mrs. Matthews and Mrs. Moakey, five defendants, larceny as bailor, oath of John Donor; Adam Latensark, assault and battery, oath of George Grobafsky; Howard Bressler, malicious mischief, oath of Samuel Reed; Samuel Feldner, secreting property with intent to defraud, oath of C. M. Stiner; Samuel and Mrs. Samuel Feldner, conspiracy, oath of C. M. Stiner; George Maurer, false pretence, oath of Wladislaw Caspakaitis; Lizzie Urbilla, fornication, oath of Amelia Wirbilla; William Parr, assault and battery, Mary Parr, Joe Soys, assault and battery, oath of Joe Biale; Joseph Schwinkowski, adultery, oath of John Gowansky; Martin Liza, assault and battery, oath of F. Tuck; Enoch Polastefsky, assault and battery, oath of John Washinsky; Lizzie Shupinski, assault and battery, oath of Paul Boddinger; John Mladusah, and two others, assault and battery, oath of William Graydalis; John Mahkus, assault and battery, oath of William Kollonouski; Anthony Puckel, assault and battery, oath of Ann Puckel; John Urban, assault and battery, oath of Simon Padukenas; William Conville, assault and battery, oath of Michael Hint; John Dona-hoe and two others, malicious mischief, oath of John Diefenderfer; George Hunsack, assault and battery, oath of Andrew Socko; Danko and Mary Sawitski, assault and battery, oath of John Kastle; William Churpinski, assault and battery, oath of Joseph Whalen; Joe Sandleski, larceny as bailor, oath of Frank Antinovich; William Storck, assault and battery to kill, oath of Joseph Christena; Mike Wargo, assault and battery, oath of Mike Kuhnith; Charles Ziemann, assault and battery, oath of William Shukitski; Samuel Evans, assault and battery, oath of James Meyer; Adam Lentowski, assault and battery, oath of Annie Rice.

LETTERS GRANTED.

Letters testimonial were granted to Teresa Canby on the estate of the late Catherine Kapf, of Minersville. Also to Elizabeth Orwig, in the estate of Isaac Orwig, of Orwigville.

MARRIAGE LICENSES.

Marriage licenses were granted to Henry Yarnall, of Barry township, and Catherine Fisher, of Gordon; Frank A. Holdings and Harrietta Matthews, of Tanawana; Thomas Oatwell and Julia Hennessy, of Shenandoah; Martin J. McGuire, of Mahanoy City; and Winifred McCarthy, of Catanzano.

DEEDS RECORDED.

Deeds were recorded as follows: From Puno Trust Company, guardian, to Albert H. Kline, premises in Schuylkill Haven; from Thos. Eisenbrese to Albert H. Kline, premises in Schuylkill Haven.

TEMPORARY LOANS REDUCED.

The County Commissioners and Controller to-day approved the payment of the $50,000 temporary four per cent. loan held by the Union Safe Deposit Bank, of Pottsville, and the Treasurer cashed the warrant. This, with the $30,000 recently paid to the Safe Deposit Bank, reduces the temporary loans from $78,000 to $18,000, and speaks well for the present administration of county affairs.

THE GOODMAN SUE.

Yesterday afternoon the case against James Oliver and Grant Goodman, who conducted a produce store at Mahanoy City, under the firm name of Goodman Bros., was called before Judge Marr. The prosecutor is Joseph D. Diehl, a Centre county produce dealer, and the defendant is embroiled as consignee and factors. Diehl sold them goods to the amount of $240.65, on which they paid 20 cent. in cash and gave their note, for six months, for the balance. In the meantime the Goodmans failed, and it was shown the business was conducted in their mother's name. Judge Marr, in charging the jury, stated that no conviction could be had as to Oliver and Grant Goodman under the evidence, but as to James the jury must decide. The jury retired at one o'clock this afternoon.

DISHONORABLE DISCHARGE.

Capt. Harney, of the Ninth Infantry, came up from Pottsville today and visited the county jail, where Charlie O'Neill is confined. The latter acknowledged that he was a deserter from the army, while on the way to Manila. He was given a discharge without honor.

GRAND JURY REPORT.

During the Week They Acted Upon One Hundred and Ninety Nine Bills.

Pottsville, Nov. 13.—The Grand Jury this morning submitted their report to court and Judge Henning thanked the members warmly for the manner in which they faithfully performed their duties. The report is as follows:

To the Honorable the Judges of said court: The grand inquest of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, inquiring for the county of Schuylkill for November sessions A. D. 1899, respectfully reports as follows:

We have acted upon 199 bills of indictment submitted to us of which number 119 have been returned as true bills and 80 as not true bills. In nearly all cases where we have had the disposition of the costs in ignored bills, we have placed the same upon the prosecutor or prosecutor.

We deplore the fact that many cases of a trivial character continue to find their way into the courts, notwithstanding the pleadings of previous Grand Juries upon the subject. Many of these prosecutions we have discovered, by sworn testimony, have been brought for the purpose of increasing the fees of constables and Justices, rather than the public morals should be the better promoted. One Justice in particular, the Jury unanimously agrees, is deserving of severe censure for forwarding a case of such trivial character as to excite their contempt. The Justice in question is Justice Miles, of West Mahanoy Township, and the jury earnestly requests that both his and the constable's fees be disallowed in the case.

We return thanks to the Honorable Court and its several officers for assistance rendered.

All of which is respectfully submitted: FRANK P. SCANLAN, Foreman.

Attest:—M. H. MASTER, Sec'y.

Grand Jury Room, Pottsville, Nov. 13, 1899.

The Rescue Horses.

The Rescue Hook and Ladder Company is disposing of one of its old teams of horses to make room for the recently purchased team of blacks. The gray horse of the team has been sold to a Polish resident of West Coal street for $50. The remaining horse, a big bay, is held by the company at a much higher figure.

Legal Notice to Parties Interested in Criminal Court Cases.

All cases where true bills have been found are fixed for trial Monday morning, November 20th, 1899, at 10 o'clock; and if parties do not respond capias and attachments will be issued.

EDGAR W. BRONFEL, District Attorney.

Fell Down the Steps.

Anthony Hughes, of Wm. Penn, while descending a flight of steps at his home yesterday afternoon, the steps broke down with a crash and he sustained a compound fracture of the leg. He was taken to the Mercy hospital last evening.

A Druggist's Complaints.

On complaint of a druggist of the town, Dr. George W. Kennedy, of Pottsville, yesterday visited the drug stores in Mahanoy City and found several violations of the law in the employment of unregistered clerks. He also found some of them did not have their diplomas conspicuously displayed, as the law requires.

MR. MOODY STRICKEN!

Evangelist Compelled to Cancel Kansas City Engagement.

HE IS NOW HOMEWARD BOUND.

That His Condition is Serious, Though Not Critical, But Believes That His Career as a Public Speaker is Nearly Ended.

Kansas City, Nov. 13.—Dwight L. Moody, the evangelist, who has been preaching here to thousands nightly in Convention hall, is broken in health and is suffering from an affection of the heart. His engagement here was cut short and last night he left for his home at Northfield, Mass., in care of a physician and a friend. They are travelling in a special car.

It is admitted that Mr. Moody's condition is serious, though when the evangelist was seen at his hotel shortly before being taken to the railway station he expressed the belief that his condition was not serious.

The reports as to the seriousness of Mr. Moody's condition are conflicting. Several of his intimate friends stated today that while his condition was serious, it was not critical. These friends, however, reluctantly admitted that they believe his career as a great public speaker was nearing the end.

Dr. Schaffner, the physician who accompanies him, said before leaving that in his opinion the evangelist's condition was not essentially worse than for some time past, and that he was simply exhausted from his recent exertions before the late crowds that have gathered to hear him. Dr. Schaffner added, however, that Mr. Moody must have quiet and rest.

THE KENTUCKY CONTEST.

Democrats Will Urge the Throwing Out of Louisville's Vote.

Louisville, Nov. 13.—A question which is likely to have an important if not a deciding influence on the contest for the governorship of Kentucky was brought up yesterday before the canvassing board of Jefferson county, which includes Louisville. Counsel for the Democratic candidates gave notice of a motion to throw out the vote of the city because of the presence of militia at the polling places on Nov. 7. The notice served on the commissioners declares that the action of Governor Bradley in "illegally using the militia and overawing and intimidating voters was entirely unnecessary," that the "election was a military election," and the subversion of the civil to the military power was "an overt act of a treasonable nature."

With Louisville thrown out Goebel would have a safe plurality in the remainder of the state. This dispute will prolong and aggravate the fight.
